Batik $29.95

Take turns putting the fun tangram shapes into the Plexiglas game board. The first player to force his or her opponent to play a piece that sticks out of the top wins!

Blokus $29.95

One of the most-awarded games, including Game of the Year awards in Europe and Japan. Place as many of your 21 geometric shapes on the board as you can, but only the corners of your own pieces may touch.

Chairs Game $17.95

It takes steady hands and a strategic eye to win this stacking game. Take turns balancing 8 different-shaped chairs--any way you can! Each chair rests on top of another until the whole pile tumbles. The player with the fewest toppled chairs wins. 24 durable plastic chairs in collectible tin. Chairs about 3" high. One or more players.

Chocolate Fix Puzzle $18.95

This brain-twisting logic puzzle requires kids to assemble boxes of chocolates, but only offers a few hints about the assortments. Chocolate Fix encourages players to use critical thinking and problem solving skills as they narrow down the possibilities. Includes 40 different challenge cards and a drawstring storage pouch. Base is 6" square.

Cross-Eyed $12.95

This game is a sight to behold: X's and O's in symmetrical patterns, fast play, and quick-thinking challenges galore. Match the cards in your hand with the grid pattern. Be the first to flip over a matching pattern of crosses and "eyes"-- a perfect match wins the round; quick thinking wins the game! The eyes have it if they're sharp enough, fast enough and smart enough. Contains 96 cards, 24 grids and 1 timer. Games rules included. 2 to 6 players.

Equate $29.95

Players use tiles to form vertical or horizontal math equations—requires computing and thinking strategically, critically and creatively. Earn higher scores using division or fraction tiles and landing on premium board positions. Includes 190 number and operation tiles, four tile racks and rules booklet. 2 to 4 players or teams. Invented by a veteran math teacher!

Fun-In-A-Box Games: Set of 3 $29.95

Link 26 is a fast-paced game where players think of words within a category that link together alphabetically. Includes 26 letter tiles, 100 category cards and scorepad. The Noodlers Box works spatial skills, as kids to use sticks to separate symbols on each card into their own spaces. Includes 80 puzzles and 6 Noodlers sticks. Our Logic Links Box presents a series of clues instructing how to arrange colored chips to solve the puzzles.

Gobblet $29.95

This game has won more awards than we can fit in this space—and no wonder, with astonishingly easy rules and addictive, fast-moving play. Simply place four pieces in a row to win, “gobbling” your opponent's pieces (or your own!) to advance or block. A wonderful exercise in strategy and logic.

Make 7 $16.95

Take turns dropping colored number tiles down any slot to create a vertical, horizontal or diagonal row that adds up to 7. Think logically and stay number-sharp to block opponents! 12" x 9" game board and 52 tiles. 2 players.

Talk in Text $14.95

Just how well do you know your mobile phone? Talk in Text is a fabulous new code-breaking puzzle game, where players race to decode text message teasers using a numeric keypad. Includes 160 puzzles and four “phones” to help players decipher the codes! For up to 4 players.

Tally Rally $14.95

Think "Boggle" with numbers, but instead of spelling out words, you're racing to put together equations. Challenges math skills by requiring children to spot addition, subtraction, multiplication and division equations to win. Includes game board, tally sheets, digit tiles and handy storage pouch.

Tic Tac Chec $18.95

The strategy of chess at a more exciting pace! Be the first to get your bishop, knight, rook and pawn in a row. Games last less than five minutes; fun for beginning and experienced chess players alike.

Tipover Crate Game $17.95

In this exciting 3-D brainteaser, tip over crates to create a path from start to finish. But think ahead—your “Tipper” playing piece must jump from crate to crate without crossing any empty grid spaces.

Up for Grabs! $14.95

Up for Grabs! Is a quick-to-learn language building game. Hexagon-shaped letter tiles are revealed one at a time. Be the first player to see a word and grab the letter tiles, and the word is yours. Letters will continue to be turned over; at any time, a player can take over your word by adding at least one new letter to it. At the end of the game, words with more than four letters are tallied, and the person with the highest score wins!
